

OBITUARY FORM

Everybody's life is a story that deserves to be told. Obituaries in this newspaper are important news stories, and are written and edited by The Kaweah Commonwealth. There is no charge for the publication of an obituary. Accuracy of obituaries is important to us and our readers, as is the historical documentation of the life and times of all Kaweah Country residents. Personal sentiments, prayers, and tributes will be included as appropriate. A photo is encouraged.
